Dear Parents,
Thank you! For all your support at our Harvest Festival last week. We hope that you enjoyed it. The dry goods will be distributed this week. Miss Gale has also sent a cheque for £270 to the Kabujogera Progressive School in Uganda, which is a fantastic amount.

Book Fair

Our book fair has been very well supported this term. It will be here at school until Tuesday afternoon. A big thank you to Mrs Klinecicz and her helpers for all their support and help. It will be great for staff to choose some new books for the classrooms and library.

Talk Homework

Following discussion after our recent in-service day on writing we have decided to introduce 'Talk homework' throughout the school.

Each week staff will give their class a topic to discuss at home with you. This will later be followed up in school. The topic for discussion could be common to all children. An example may be 'television is better than books'.

The new literacy framework emphasises that it is really important for children to be able to re-tell a story very well and be able to talk on topics with confidence. Hopefully this type of homework will help children to do this.

The topic will also be followed up at school to see what ideas the children have discussed at home.

The topic for discussion for the week will be placed in the school notice board. Watch this space!

Parent Evenings

These are taking place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week from 3.30pm to 6.30pm. A slip confirming your appointment time will be sent home with your child on Friday 17th October.

Well Done

The house and vice house captains organised activities for the school to raise additional funds for Jeans for Genes on Monday. All the children planned their activities really well and raised some more money.
